I. Mathematics underwent, in the nineteenth century, a transformation so profound that it is not too much to call it a second birth of the subject- its first birth having occurred among the ancient Greeks, say from the sixth through the fourth century B.C. In speaking so of the first birth,. I am taking the word mathematics to refer, not.

Following work of I. Schur, we show that the Galois group of the generalized Laguerre polynomial $F_{2n} = e^x x^{-2n} (d^{2n}(e^{-x} x^{4n})/dx^{2n})$ is the alternating group of degree $2n$, provided that F_{2n} is irreducible over the rationals. We show irreducibility when $n = p^k$, p a prime greater than 3. These polynomials may fill a gap left in.

The analysis of path structures is formulated in terms of jet bundles with particular emphasis on the transformation laws and symmetry properties of geodesic path structures. The role played by geodesic path structures in the constructive axioms of Ehlers, Pirani, and Schild for GRT is discussed and it is shown that these.

Dear Internet Archive Supporter, I ask only once a year: please help the Internet Archive today. We're an independent, non-profit website that the entire world depends on. Most can't afford to donate, but we hope you can. If everyone chips in $25, we can keep this going for free. For the price of a book, we can share that.

Riemann-Siegel Integral Formula. The Riemann-Siegel integral formula is the following representation of the xi-function $\xi(s)$ found in Riemann's Nachlass by Bessel-Hagen in 1926 (Siegel 1932; Edwards 2001, p. 166). The formula is essentially.

Ever since Rudolf Virchow in 1858 publicly announced his apprehension of neuroglia being a true connective substance, this concept has been evolving to encompass a heterogeneous population of cells with various forms and functions. We briefly compare the 19th–20th century perspectives on.

Volume 1: The first volume of Hahn's Collected Works contains his path-breaking contributions to functional analysis, the theory of curves, and ordered groups. These papers are commented on by Harro Heuser, Hans Sagan, and Laszlo Fuchs. Volume 2: The second volume deals with functional analysis, real analysis and.
