Beschreibung

El presente trabajo se aproxima al pensamiento de Pierre Klossowski para hacer patente la separación entre lo visible y lo decible a partir de tres elementos clave, ... quitándose el sudor después de cazar, por eso quería convertirse en ciervo y cada día imitaba (representaba) los movimientos, saltos y sonidos del animal.

14 Aug 2017 . 'Pierre Klossowski (1905-2001) played a significant role in French art, literature, and philosophy from the 1930s through the 1980s. ... of the pagan reaction, but more specifically the sacred animal of the ancient mysteries, the golden donkey of the Isiac [_isiaque_ – ? to do with Isis?] initiation, an animal.

In the basement, gamers will find solace in David O'Reilly's Everything, 2016, inspired by the writings of philosopher Alan Watts, which allows visitors to constantly change perspective by becoming different animals or inanimate objects, with no final goal in sight—an existential infinity in which one never loses or wins, but.

È possibile attribuire al filosofo-scrittore francese Pierre Klossowski una specifica filosofia dell'ospitalità tanto da poterla elevare a documento paradigmatico ... Le leggi dell'ospitalità sono portate a compimento quando ogni anima è abitata dal suo dèmone, che la mette in rapporto di mutua scambiabilità con altre anime.

Citazioni su Pierre Klossowski[modifica]. Partendo dall'assunto che la Chiesa è la confutazione dell'Impero, egli denuncia il travestirsi dell'Impero in Chiesa «trionfante»: «Cesare in effetti non è ancora l'Anticristo; solo dopo che Cristo si sarà rivelato al mondo, Cesare "con l'anima di Cristo" diventerà l'Anticristo». Così, lo In.
